INTRODUCTION (AUGUST EXTENSION)

With the return of our founder, Ken Brailsford, Zija is entering yet another season of excitement. Ken's resume as a creative force in this industry is legendary and spans over three decades. Throughout his career he has repeatedly set the benchmark for innovation, and Zija 2008 will be another one for the record books.

Many new strategies and concepts will be released over the coming months. The first ground-breaking announcement concerns Ken's vision of a profit participation plan with all those whose long-term efforts qualify them. The full details of this exciting opportunity will be announced to everyone at the Zija International Convention in October 2008. This plan will be exclusive and limited. For that reason, existing Zija Independent Distributors have a great head-start, since those who qualify quicker or whose success is greater will earn a larger portion of the Zija Profit Participation Plan.
